

Written 2-10-1957

From the diary of Thomas Lyon Fisher

1905

In Heber City I spent one full summer building. , April until until three days before Christmas. I had charge of putting a roof on the North Central two story school house and fixed for the school two lower rooms. I had charge of the Red Sandstone business block containing a bank, , drug store and clothing store. We built a nice residence for John Austin, later sold to Dr. Merritt, also a home for Joseph R. Murddock, who was stake president. I came home three days before Christmas and haven't been back since. Two years later my lumber yard burned down so I lost most of my effort.

Thomas Lyon Fisher was born in Bountiful Utah on November, 13, 1875.

He lived to be almost ninety-five. dieing October 24, 1970.

He spent most of his life in the lumber business, having businesses at various times in his life in Logan in Bpuntiful, Centerville Richfield and Ryolite, Nevada. He also built many homes and it was his lifetime ambition to help people of low income have a home.

His parents were Pioneers, . John Fisher his father was a Pony Express rider and a stage coach driver for a short time, a farmer, business man and third mayor of Bountiful. His mother as a child helped drive a wagon across the plains.

From the diary of Thomas Lyon Fisher

In 1907 I spent one full winter building a road and three days before Christmas. I had charge of building a road on the North Central the story school house and also for the school over lower road. I had charge of the Red Landmark business block containing a bank, my store and clothing store. In 1911 I also had residence for John A. Fisher, later called Mr. Merritt, also a home for Joseph H. Mordock, who was state president. I came home three days before Christmas and haven't been back since. Two years later my father burned down a lot of my effort.

Thomas Lyon Fisher was born in Kentucky 18. 1865.

He lived to be almost ninety-five, dying October 24, 1950.

He spent most of his life in the two or three towns in Kentucky at various times in his life in Iowa in Kentucky, Kentucky, Kentucky and Kentucky. He also built many houses and it was his lifetime ambition to build of his income have a home.

His parents were farmers. John Fisher his father was a farmer who was a farmer and a state coach driver for a short time, a farmer, business man and a member of Kentucky. His mother was a child helped drive a wagon across the state.

✓ To FHL
✓ for FAS
4-7-89

Write Norma Alter
for his history

8-1-89

wove hats of straw
"imported" many

Earlier, however
To give a season

Mrs. Dunca
just south of her shop built south operated a very
her home on Fifth
also a skilled teacher beautiful hats.

worked with Mrs.
Millinery School
M. L. W. (F)